Tulalip Mission School, Jan. 1st 1877.

To Major E.J. Mallet
Indian Agent, W.T.

Dear Sir!

I take the pleasure of writing a few lines to you to express my most profound respect and hearty thanks towards you.

I feel very grateful towards you, dear sir, for having been so kind as to appoint me your interpreter. I therefore promise that I will serve your faithfully as much as possible by and through the grace of God.

This being the happy occasion of New Year's day I feel very happy and wish you a merry, happy and blessed New Year

May God bless your endeavors for the civilization of the poor Indians of this place, and may you see many a happy New Year, is the fervent wish and prayer of your

Most obedient servant

Ambrose
