DEDICATION

"Mr. Raymond J. Marion, Professor of History, Chairman of Division; A.B. Assumption College, 1942; M.A. Clark University, 1947; Ph.D., Ibid., 1957." These few words on page 13 of the current Assumption catalog are the only ones which will describe Dr. Marion to a prospective student. It is unfortunate that more can't be written, but to do him justice would take another complete catalog. We who have known him for four years however, have more to say, for we have known him not merely as a scholar and brilliant teacher but as a great man, an alumnus whose personal qualities show the deep influence of Assumption's type of education. His education did not concern itself merely with his intellectual development, for Dr. Marion used his four years at Assumption to develop the "whole man" and while here he was active in athletics (varsity basketball) and spiritual activities (Third Order).

Upon completion of his studies at Assumption, he enlisted in the Marine Corps and as an officer saw action on many islands in the South Pacific.

For four years we have gone to him and have never been turned away, for Dr. Marion is himself a student, familiar with the student's problems and eager to help in any way possible. Whether it was a field day or a visit to his house, we could always feel that "Doc" was one of us.

In some small way, then, we hope that this gesture will help to demonstrate all that he means to us. With this in mind, we the class of 1964 dedicate The Heights to Dr. Raymond J. Marion.

SENIORS

L. to R., Dennis Anderson, Vice-President; John Jenkins, President; Richard Brodeur, Treasurer.

This June Assumption College will graduate the first complete "product" of the new campus. Without doubt, the class of '64 is proud of this distinction, and as it actually 'commences' a wholly new and challenging way of life, it can feel confident of attaining much success because of the superior education it has received. The acceptance of future responsibility will be made easier because we know that Assumption has prepared us well for such a task.

We are also proud to say that for the last four years, we have maintained one of the highest class averages. But this was not accomplished at the expense of extra-curricular activities. Constantly, the members of the class have enthusiastically participated in varsity sports and campus organizations, not to mention the ambition shown in initiating such activities as the Grand Imperial Luncheoneers. Humbly, we feel that much of the "esprit de corps" at Assumption will leave with the class of '64. We take with us unique memories which will always remain in our minds.

Anxious, then, though somewhat saddened, we leave Assumption behind to put into practice what we have learned. However, we know that when we return for a visit, we will see that Assumption College has remained true to its high quality of standards, and is faithfully conforming to its motto, "Donec formetur Christus in vobis."

It came — unexpected, and without great flourish, but it came, and with it class rings, major courses, nurses, and not a few headaches. To these and to the memories of past years a Junior can constantly refer, whether for joyous remembrance or an infrequent shudder of regret. But they are all behind him now. The familiar letdown at the beginning of Junior year, the “where am I going,” the “why am I here,” has for the most part been solved. The high spirits have been granted “the serenity to accept things they cannot change, courage to change things they can, and the wisdom to know the difference.” Yet there will always be that little spark, that spirit which will distinguish the Class of 1965. Loud, brassy, yes; and this has served to knit us into a tight group, so that one member can always rely on any other whether for a loan, help with studies or a blind date. The parties, the “B,” the dances, the basketball games, they’re all behind us, but they’re waiting again next year, together with friends we have not only known but lived with. Senior year, with its thesis, “bacs,” and grad school jitters loom ahead but so does another year of this camaraderie. With this in mind, we can say, “The best is yet to come.”

CLASS OF 1966

Assumption's Class of '66, "big in number and even bigger in heart," has exemplified in their two years here the type of individuals that this college strives to produce.

Under the able leadership of the three J's, President Dorsey, Vice-President St. Amand and Treasurer-Secretary Bellanca this class accomplished what few other classes have even attempted. They have established, by means of dances, raffles and other methods of persuasion, a generous scholarship that will be given in their name to an incoming freshman.

If this wasn't enough, the Sophs are well represented in every campus activity, being especially active in athletics, plays, student government and, of course, liturgical functions. Not only are the Sophomores able to boast of excellence in academics but in physical supremacy as well. Just ask the present Freshman and Junior classes.

The "Class of '66" is one that the administration and student body can be proud of. And proudest of all should be the Sophomores.

CLASS OFFICERS Christopher L. Giovine, President; Michael F. Gendron, Vice-President; Karl J. Rodenhauser, Treasurer.

WE, the last of the war babies, appeared on the campus of Assumption College in late summer 1963. We have survived not only the waning days of the war but also the addresses of the administration, the horrors of initiation, the nocturnal visits of mischievous raiding parties, and the perils of semester exams. We have survived all this and more, but we have also contributed to the school.

The varsity soccer team has felt the extra effort of our classmen, the cross country team was bolstered by our freshman runners, and the junior varsity, as well, as varsity basketball teams know well of our spirit and talent.

We can also boast members in almost every extracurricular activity on campus. But we do not pride ourselves solely on past accomplishments. We have also the hopes of being the most productive class in the history of Assumption. This class has already produced a constitution by which it may guide itself. This constitution we hope will lay the ground work by which our class can strive to accomplish what has been heretofore untried.

Above STANDING: Lionel R. Rapanault, Jr., William P. Dee, Richard R. Bowman, Paul A. Turgeon, Donald J. Zappone, Karl Rodenhauser, Floyd H. Ashlaw, Michael J.

Perrault, Timothy Brophy, Joseph Nally. SEATED: Michael O. Garreston, Wilfred Owen, Arthur F. Lamoureux, George J. Ridick III. RECLINING: Stephen P. Hiro.

SOCCER

INSTRUCTIONS

IF AT FIRST YOU DON'T SUCCEED — CHEAT!

Soccer practice began with customary high hopes in September, and ran through three grueling weeks before the opening game. Veterans strained to sharpen their skills and novices were instructed in the fundamentals of the sport; all struggled, rain or shine, to whittle away the fruits of a long, wet summer.

Despite experience gained at scrimmages and almost unlimited enthusiasm, in the opening game the Greyhounds were forced to accept defeat at the hands of cross-town rival, Clark University. The Clark game was followed by others of its kind, as Assumption faced teams which seemed to represent the United Nations rather than any college. Games were lost by a single point, with Assumption full-backs occasionally scoring for the opposition. Nor was nature kind. Part of the Nichols game was actually played in the dark during a snowstorm.

Coaches Ferrie and Lundquist, while disappointed with the team's record, feel that it is not necessarily a true indication of the team's worth. Although the graduation of Dick Brodeur, Rick Nelson, Bob Raymond and of goalie-captain Tim Reardon will definitely present a problem, the coaches are confident that with the return of veteran players and the support of a larger student body, the team will have a successful season in 1964.

“THE GOLDEN EGG”

This year the cross-country team had a winning season due to the ability of first year coach Joe O'Brien and the hard work and enthusiasm of its members led by Captain Ed Johnson.

Unfortunately the team lost its first meet against Hartford University, but bounced back against Worcester State, defeating them 23-33 on their course. In the next meet at St. Anselm's, Assumption was defeated and it began to look like a long, hard season for the Greyhounds. The meet against Nichols College evened the slate, but success was short-lived as Assumption went down to defeat at the hands of a strong Worcester Tech team. Meeting an improved Worcester State team again on our home course, Assumption got back to its winning ways. With the defeat of Bridgeport State the Greyhounds closed out a winning season.

Perhaps the biggest and certainly the most pleasant surprise of the season was Paul Gately, who broke all previous records on every course the Greyhound harriers invaded. Captain Ed Johnson was number two man on the team. Ed is a two year veteran who should have had his best season. Unfortunately a leg injury kept him from running in the last few races. Tom Cate and Steve Nolan were continuously battling for third place and when Ed could not run they filled the gap.

There was a great improvement in the other members of the squad as the season went on. With this improvement and the experience gained, Coach O'Brien can expect a winning season next year.

With the boom of drums, the blast of horns and the enthusiastic and unrestrained cheers of a highly partisan crowd, Assumption opened its 1963-64 campaign with a very convincing victory over N.I.T. champion Providence College. The victory was especially satisfying coming on the night the new gymnasium was dedicated. With a full-steam-ahead start, Assumption lunged toward its best season ever, easily winning over Worcester State. Clark proved an exciting and able opponent, losing to the "Hounds" by only two points. The next nine games provided exciting basketball as Assumption forced its foes to run, run, run. Impressive victories were recorded over Los Angeles State, Brandeis, and St. Michael's. With performances such as these it is quite easy to see why the team is U.P.I.'s choice for the number one spot in New England.

However, it has not been an easy job obtaining this recognition. Coach Andy Laska and his assistant Joe O'Brien have worked long and hard to bring the Greyhounds to their present position. And their spirit and desire are mirrored in the players. After Coach Laska had granted the team a rest from practice the day after the Providence victory, Captain John Jenkins informed him the players wanted to continue. With spirit and determination like this Assumption will have to have its best season ever.

TENNIS

This year's tennis team will try to improve on last year's record which saw Assumption above the .500 mark by one match. Despite the loss of two top men by graduation, such stalwarts as Captain Steve Warner, Rene Bonneau, Frank Cottrell, Leo Turcotte, Norm Tremblay and Randy Lanciault should be able to handle their clay court foes with little difficulty. This lineup will be complemented by some fine talent in the freshman class, so the Greyhounds look forward to their 1964 season with confidence.

BASEBALL

With the return of 12 lettermen including three game-winner Paul Youd, power-hitter Jim Monahan and centerfielder-captain Dennis Scavone, Coach O'Brien has reason to smile optimistically. The 1964 baseball Greyhounds promise to be one of the best teams Assumption has ever fielded. Having lost but one starter, the club is experienced and has quite a bit of depth. The big question-mark will again be pitching but with Paul Youd and a more mature Bob Peterson, that problem will not be as big as it was last year. Last year's team showed a mediocre 5-4 record but may have indicated what Assumption can expect this year with four wins in the last five games.
