ASSUMPTION COLLEGE

SATURDAY, MAY THE SEVENTEENTH
NINETEEN HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-SIX
Recipients of Honorary Doctorates

J. Peter Grace

As chairman and chief executive officer of W.R. Grace & Co., J. Peter Grace oversees an international corporation with more than seven billion dollars in worldwide sales, primarily in chemicals, natural resources, and consumer-oriented businesses.

As head of the Grace Commission, Mr. Grace led a volunteer team of 2,000 businessmen and women. The commission reported to President Reagan that 2,478 instances of waste in government could be eliminated for projected savings of over four hundred billion dollars in the three year period ending in 1987.

Peter Grace joined W.R. Grace & Co. in 1936 upon graduation from Yale University. In 1941 he married Margaret Fennelly. The Graces have nine children.

A devout Catholic layman, he is distinguished as a Knight of Malta, a noted philanthropist, and a tireless worker for the good of America.

David R. Grenon

Service as 1985 chairman of the Worcester Area Chamber of Commerce and Chairman of the board of the Saint Francis Home, a non-profit nursing home for elderly people in Worcester, characterize David R. Grenon's dedication to family, church and civil matters.

A graduate of Assumption Preparatory School and Villanova University, David Grenon served as a trustee of Assumption College from 1972 to 1985.

The Worcester Chapter of the National Conference of Christians and Jews chose Mr. Grenon as the Catholic honored in 1983 for fostering inter-religious understanding.

He is president of The Protector Group, Inc., past president (1976) of the Independent Insurance Agents of Massachusetts, and a board member of the Worcester Community Foundation.

He and his wife, the former Rosalie A. Rocheleau, have five children.

Helen Marie Smith

A native of Pittsfield, Massachusetts, Helen Marie Smith graduated from Pittsfield High School and the Mercy Hospital School of Nursing in Springfield, Massachusetts. For a number of years afterward, she worked as a staff nurse, and then as a supervisor, at Saint Vincent Hospital, Worcester, after which she attended Boston College, where she took her B.S. in nursing. She attended Xavier University in Ohio and earned her M.B.A. in hospital administration.

After a year as assistant administrator at Saint Vincent Hospital, she was appointed administrator in 1963 and executive director in 1973. With corporate reorganization within the hospital in 1983, she was elected president and chief executive officer of Saint Vincent Healthcare System, Inc. She retired in November 1985.
