Pardon me, Mr. Wallcut for taking such "French leave" of you yesterday - But after disposing of my numerous packages, I found there was so little time left that we had to hurry off to the Depot to catch our train which we accomplished without any difficulty - Indeed I must confess to a little "nervousness" in my madness too, as I drew both of my mind and time you already over-taken by the pressure of business, and I did not like to cause you any additional trouble - since I should have liked to have said "good-bye" and thanked you for your kindness, which greatly alleviated the unpleasantness of my mission to Omaha.

I hope your arduous labors will soon be over and you will be able to take a good rest.

Miss Jones joins me in kind remembrances to you.

Very sincerely yours -
Eleanor W. Nelson
